

RAFMs WEEKLY UPDATE

IT'S BLACKBERRY TIME

The blackberries are in season and are plump and juicy from all the wonderful rains that we have received. Century Oaks Farm will have them at all three markets, Wednesday and Friday from 3-5:30 at the Lunenschloss/Hanson Funeral Home Parking Lot and Saturday from 7- noon on the courthouse square. They taste great in a pie or on ice cream. Of course eating them fresh is always a great summer treat. Blackberry jam is a simple jam to make and helps you enjoy their great taste all year round!

Raspberries are done for another 3 weeks or so.

What's in season at the RAFMs

THE FOLLOWING IS A PARTIAL LIST OF WHAT YOU CAN FIND AT THE RAFMs THIS WEEK.

- Door County Sweet Cherries
- Sweet Corn
- Blackberries
- Green Beans
- Tomatoes
- Peppers
- Summer Squash
- Basil
- Cucumbers
- Pickling cucumbers
- Dill
- Garlic
- Onions
- Cauliflower
- Cabbage
- Zucchini
- Kale
- Swiss Chard
- Cheese Curd
- Coffee
- Jams, Jellies & Pie Fillings
- Bakery Items
- Eggs
- Jewelry
- Crafts
- Honey

IT'S TIME TO FREEZE CORN !

Sweet corn season is well underway and the sweetest varieties have started to ripen. Now is the time to start thinking about putting up the yummy taste of fresh sweet corn to enjoy all winter long. Century Oaks Farm has an easy and yummy recipe for freezing corn. Check with them at the market.

The pickling cucumbers are in full swing also. There are a range of sizes and varieties. Check with the vendors to see what kind would work best with your recipe. The summer seems to be about two weeks ahead this year, so don't miss out on your chance to make pickles!

Don't forget to check out our website at www.richlandareafarmersmarket.com.

Wednesdays & Fridays
 3 pm to 5:30 pm
 Lunenschloss/Hanson Funeral Home
 Parking Lot
 Corner of Seminary & Church

Saturdays
 7:00 am to 1 pm
 Richland County Courthouse
 (Corner of Seminary and Central)

Questions or Comments?

CenturyOaksFarm@wildblue.net or call Melissa at 604-5211

To remove your name from our mailing list, please email CenturyOaksFarm@wildblue.net